Update from OCR

The Building Committee would like to express its appreciation to Nafis & Young, specifically Larry Secor for all of his work and effort towards the successful completion of this project.

Old Business

Ms. Marshall described several options for the enclosed walkway. After a discussion, the Building Committee agreed to take up the subject in greater detail at its next regularly scheduled meeting or at a special meeting at a date/time to be determined. It is hoped that at the next meeting, all interested parties would be available to participate in this discussion.
